

Giuseppe Arcimboldo

Today we will be...

Exploring and recreating Arcimboldo's Four Seasons paintings.

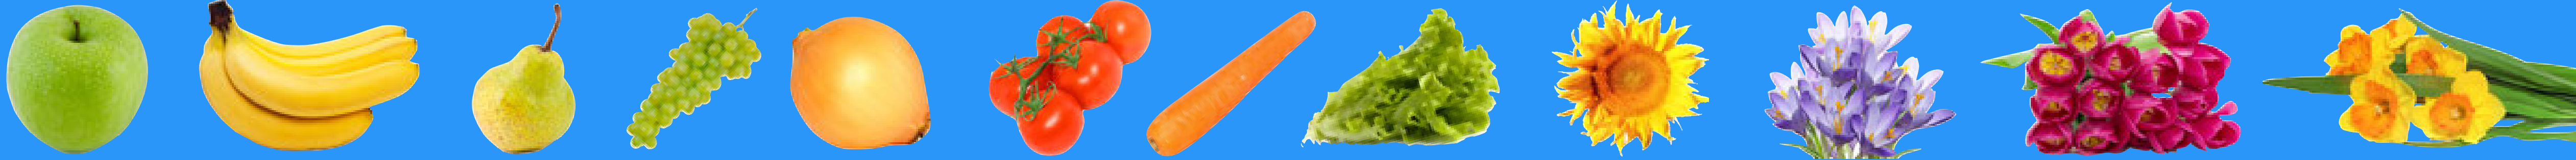

Who is this?
What do you know about him?

Think, pair, share.

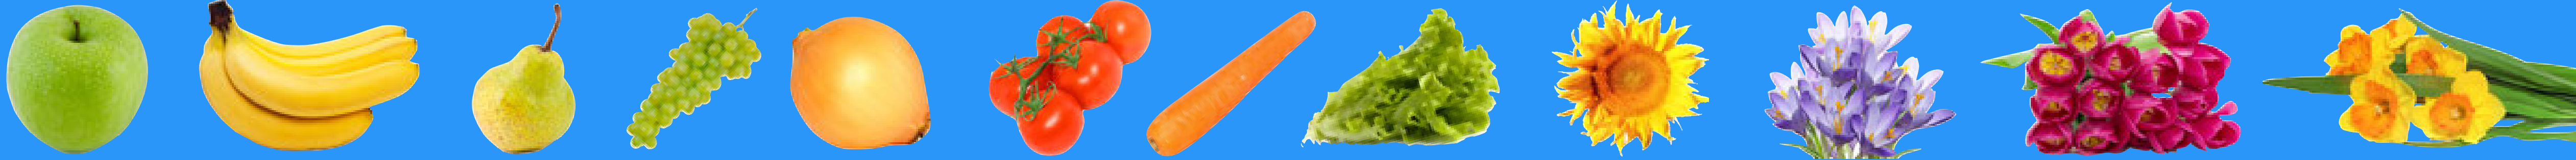

This is Giuseppe Arcimboldo. He was an Italian artist. He designed stained glass windows and costumes. Most of his paintings were portraits.

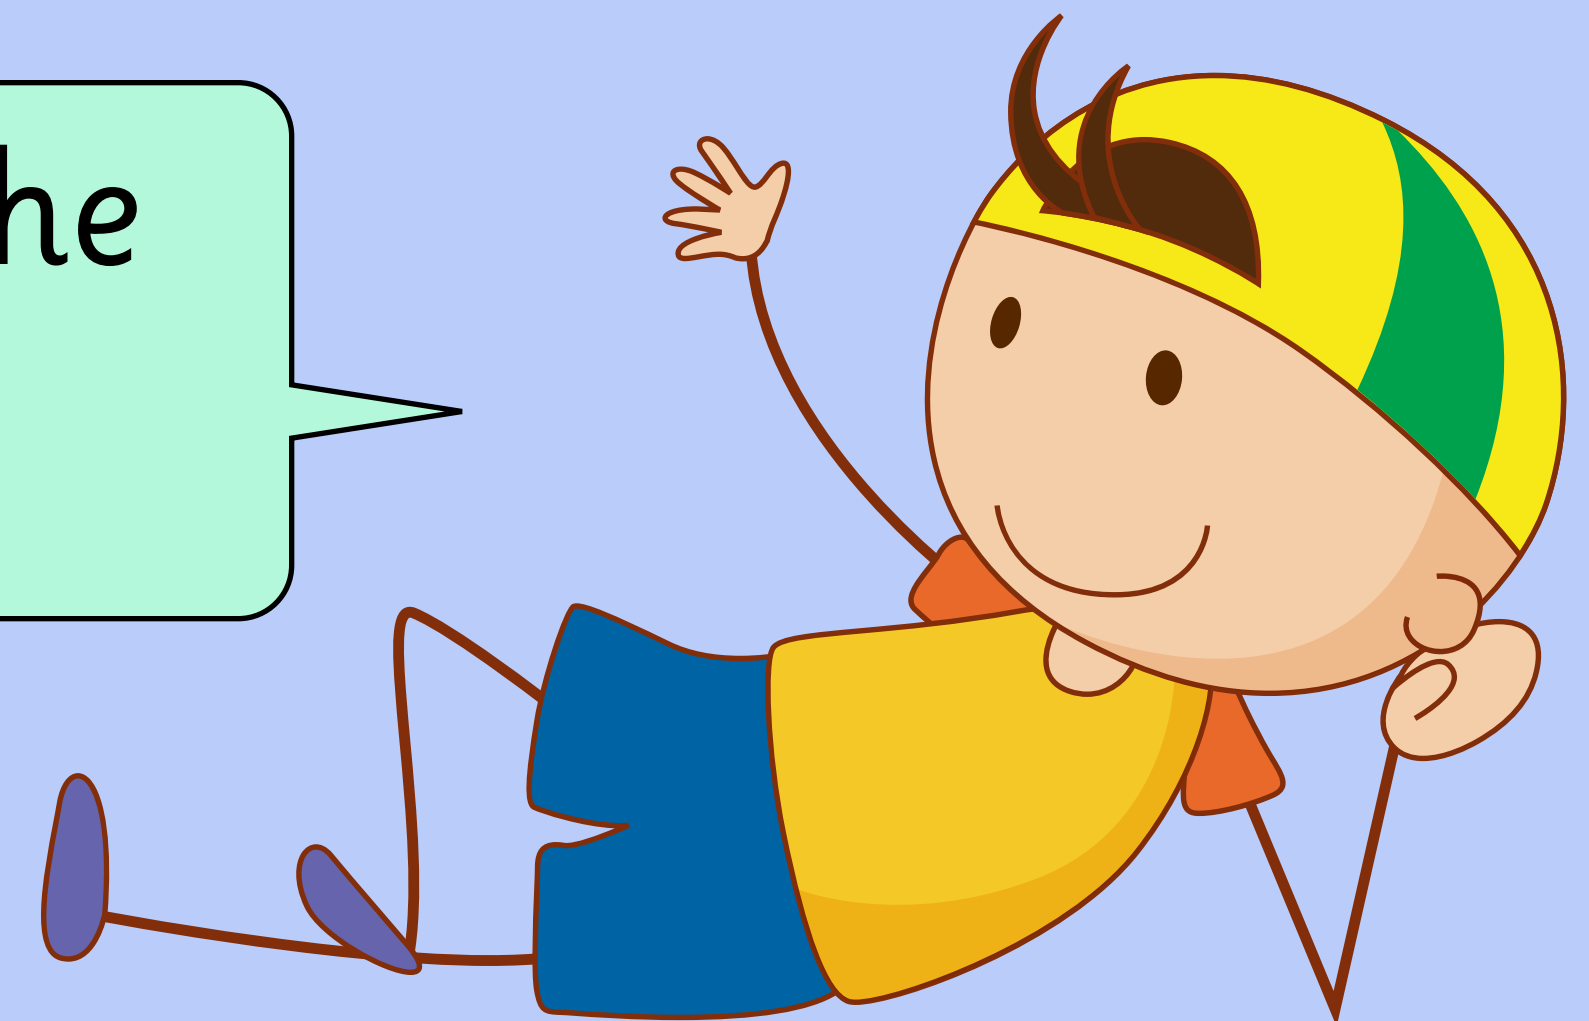

Can you remember what made his portrait of Rudolf II as Vertumnus different from other portraits?

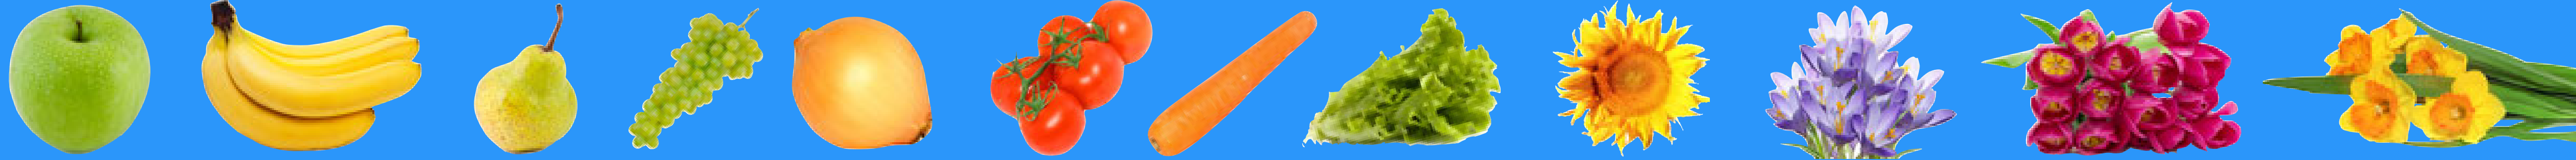

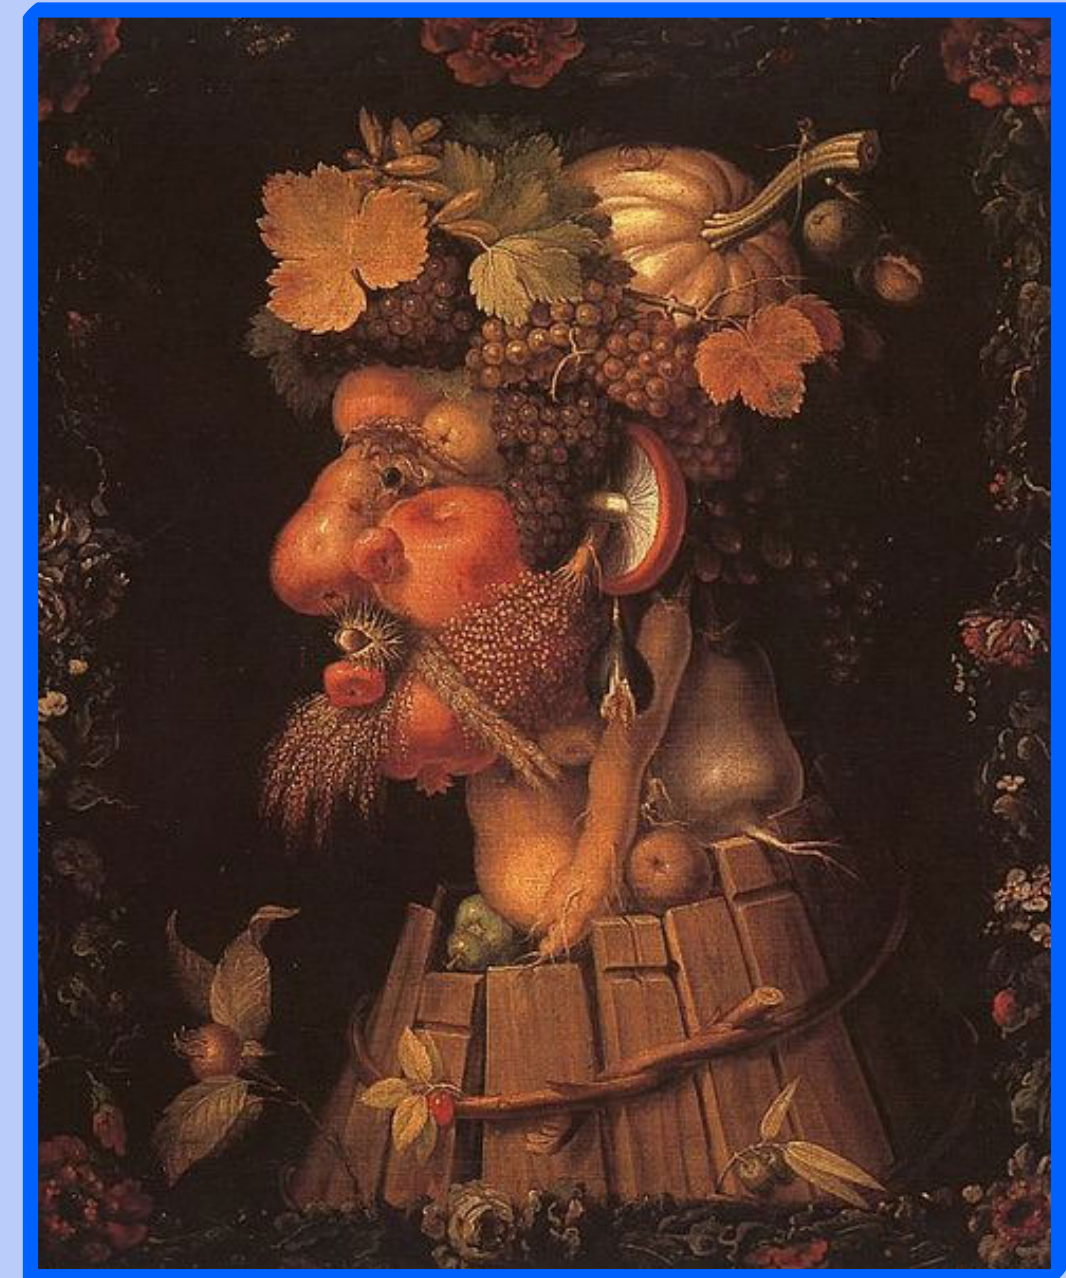

His portrait of Rudolf II as Vertumnus was made up of fruits, vegetables and flowers. Arcimboldo made lots of portraits like this one. He even made a portrait in this style for each of the seasons.

Can you name the four seasons?

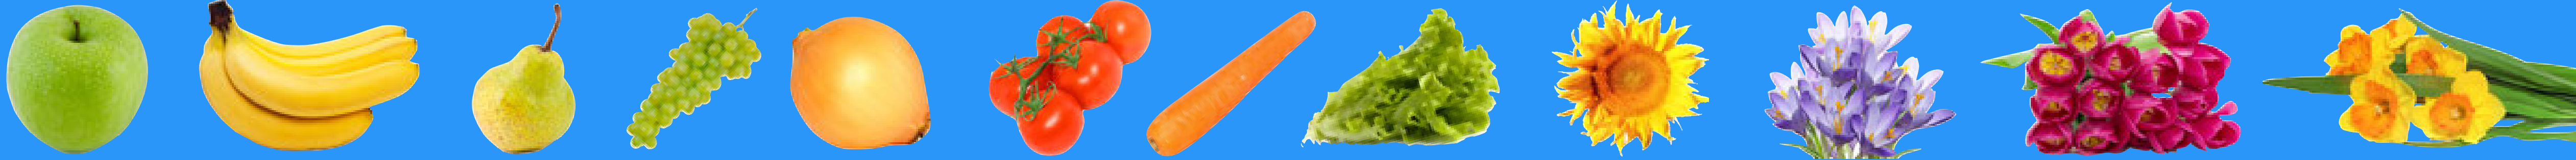

The four seasons are spring, summer, autumn and winter.

Which of these pictures do you think represents spring? Why?

Think, pair, share.

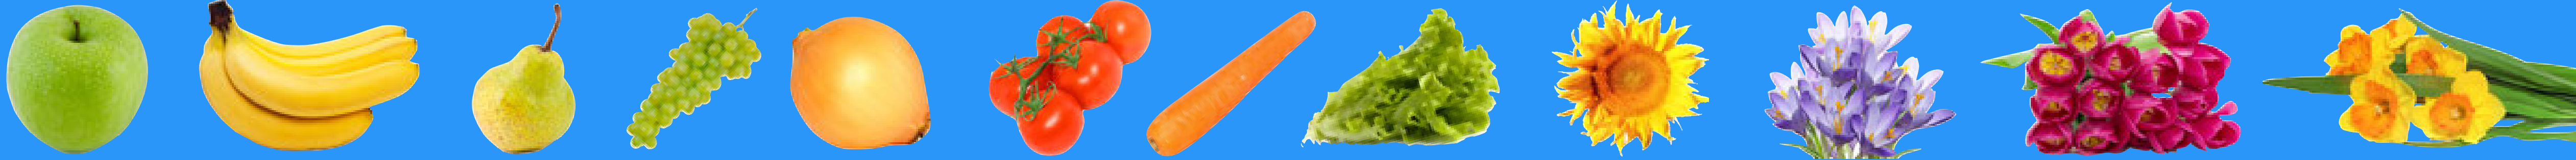

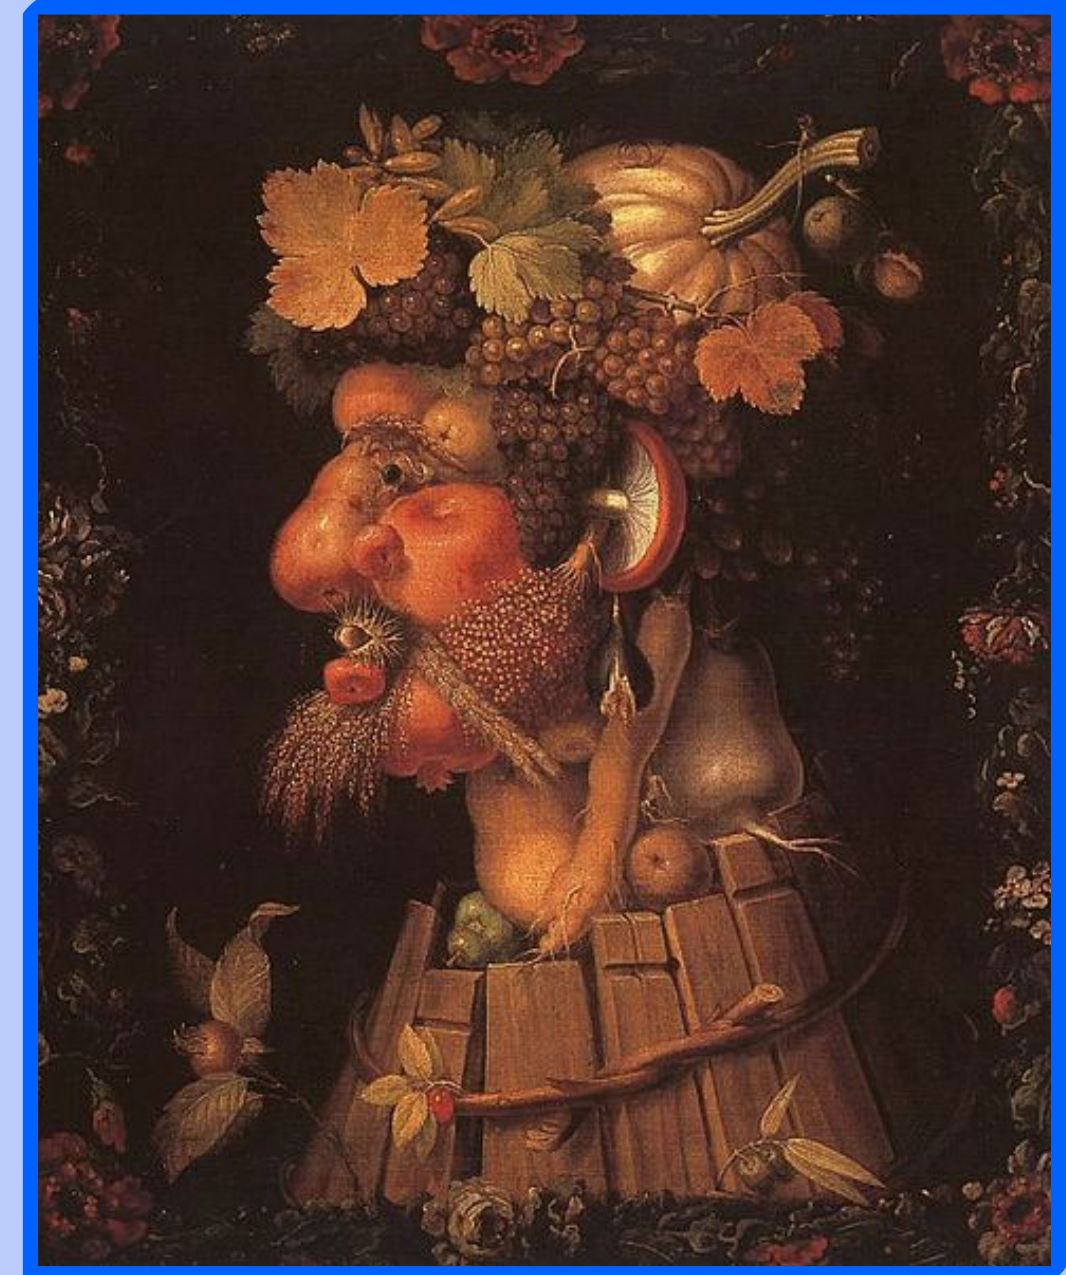

This portrait represents spring. The person has been made from flowers.

Did you
guess right?

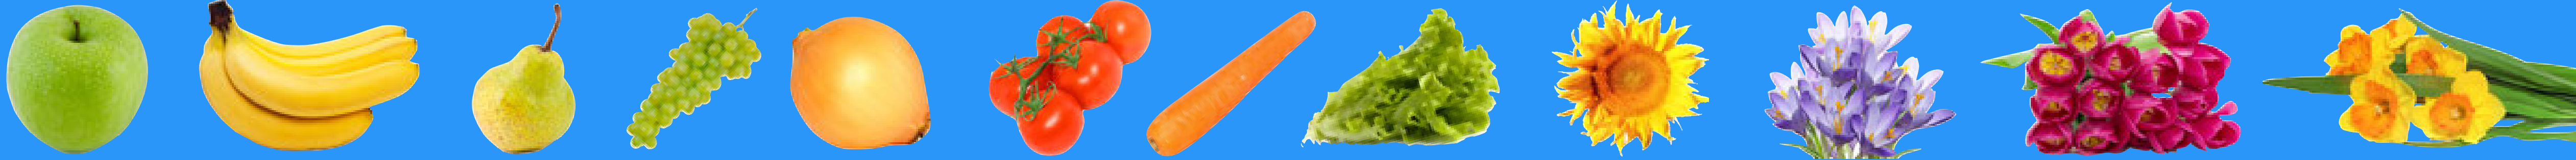

The four seasons are spring, summer, autumn and winter.

Which of these pictures do you think represents summer? Why?

Think, pair, share.

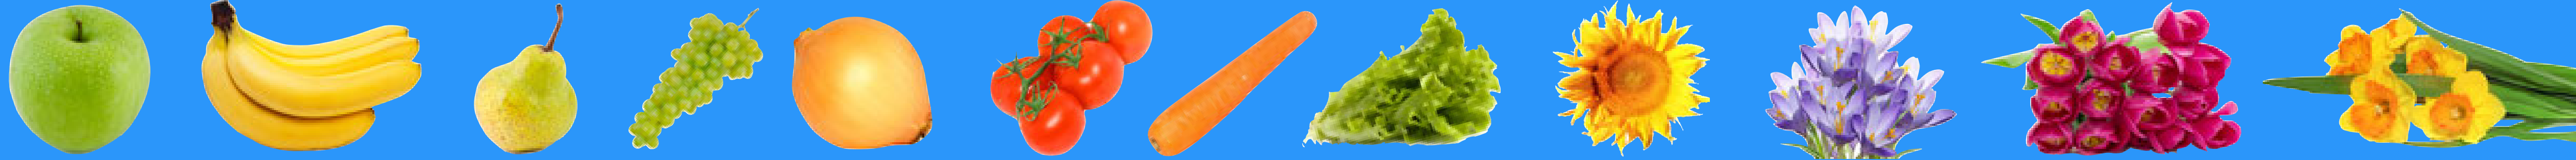

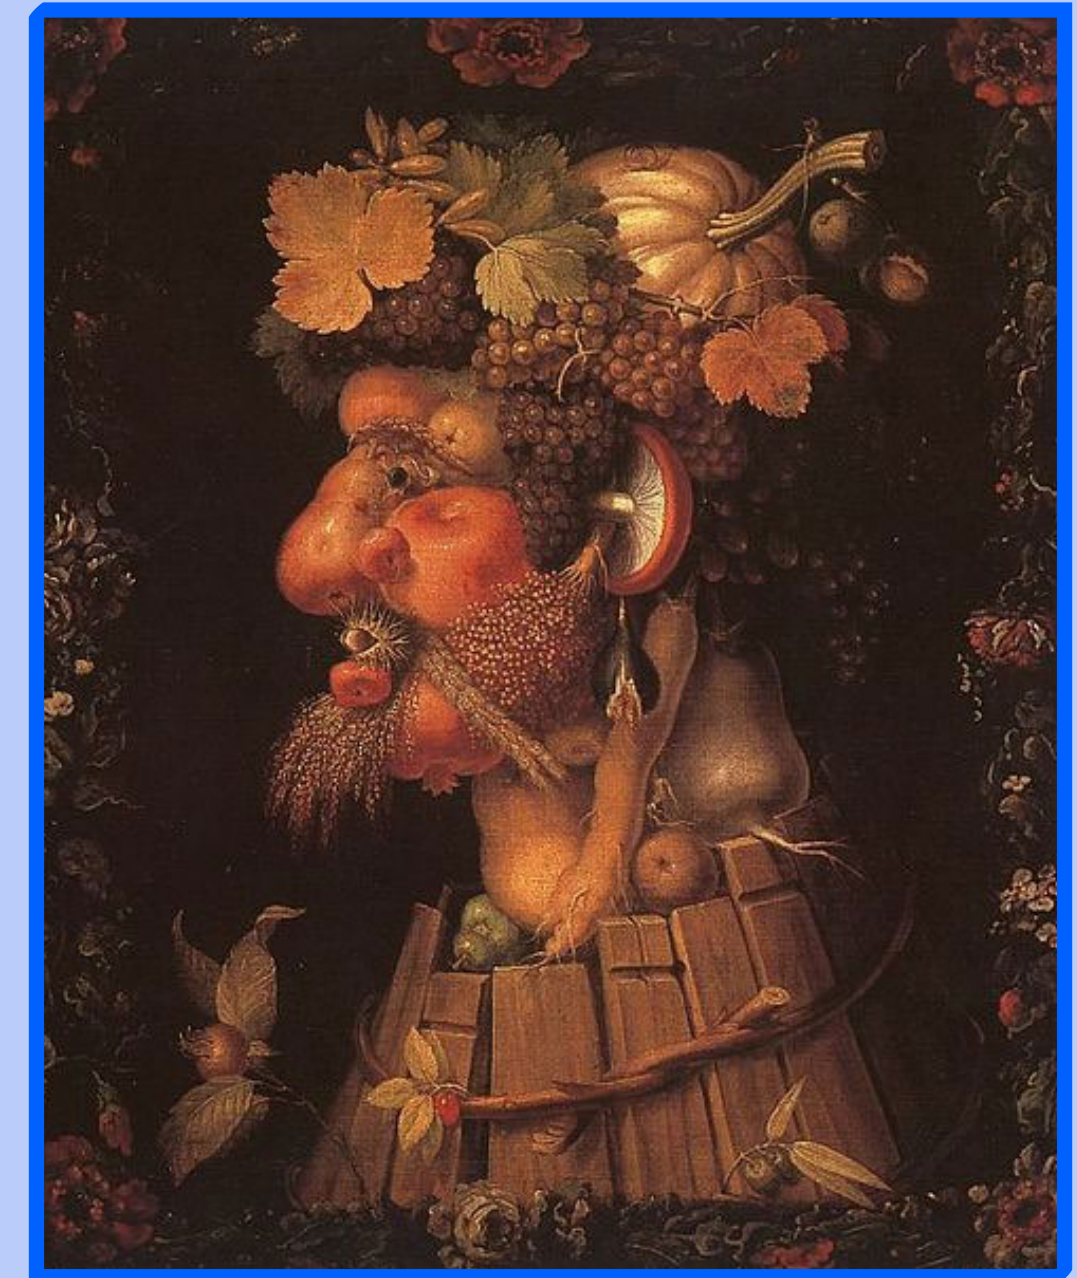

This portrait represents summer. The person has been made from fruits, berries and other foods that are harvested in the summer months.

Did you guess right?

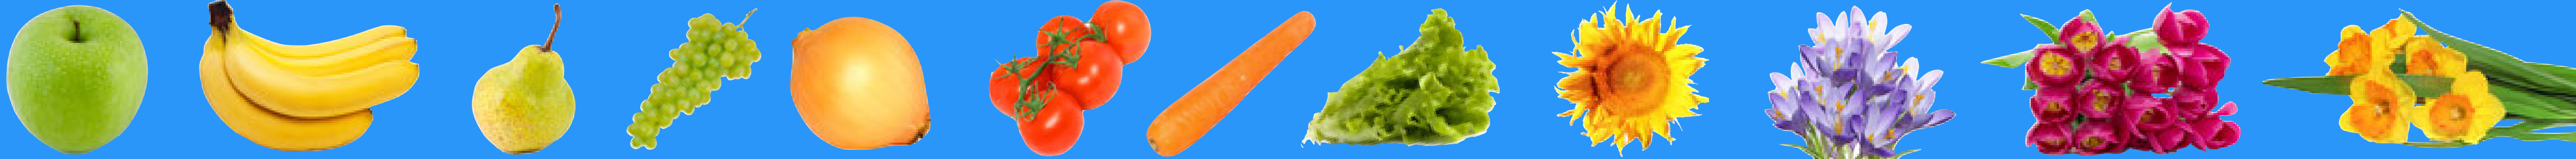

The four seasons are spring, summer, autumn and winter.

Which of these pictures do you think represents autumn? Why?

Think, pair, share.

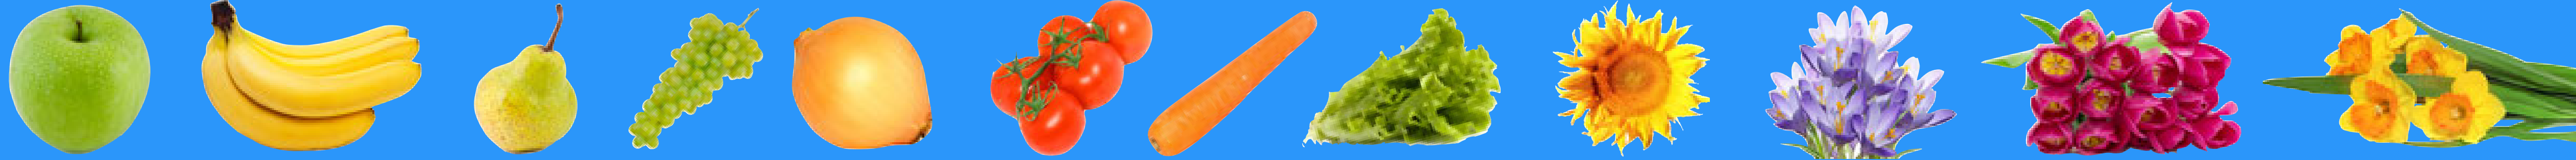

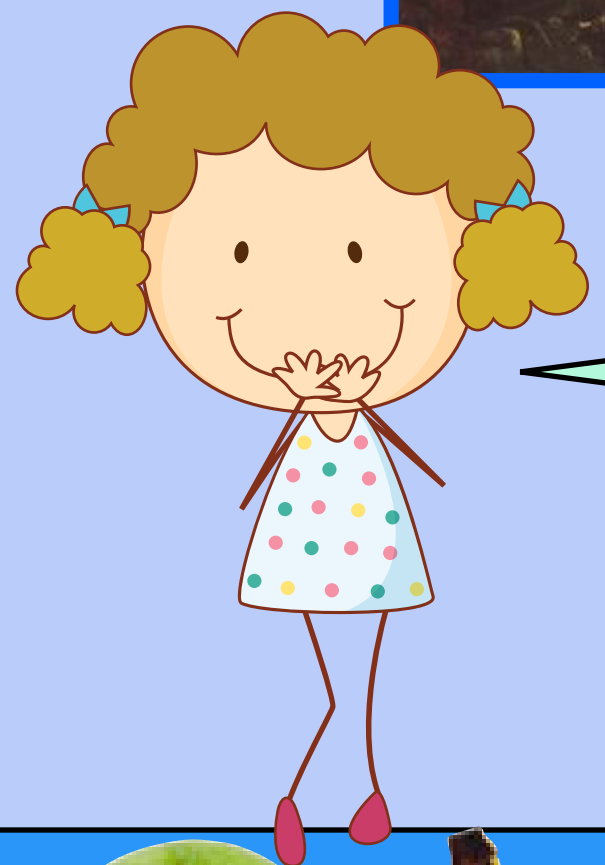

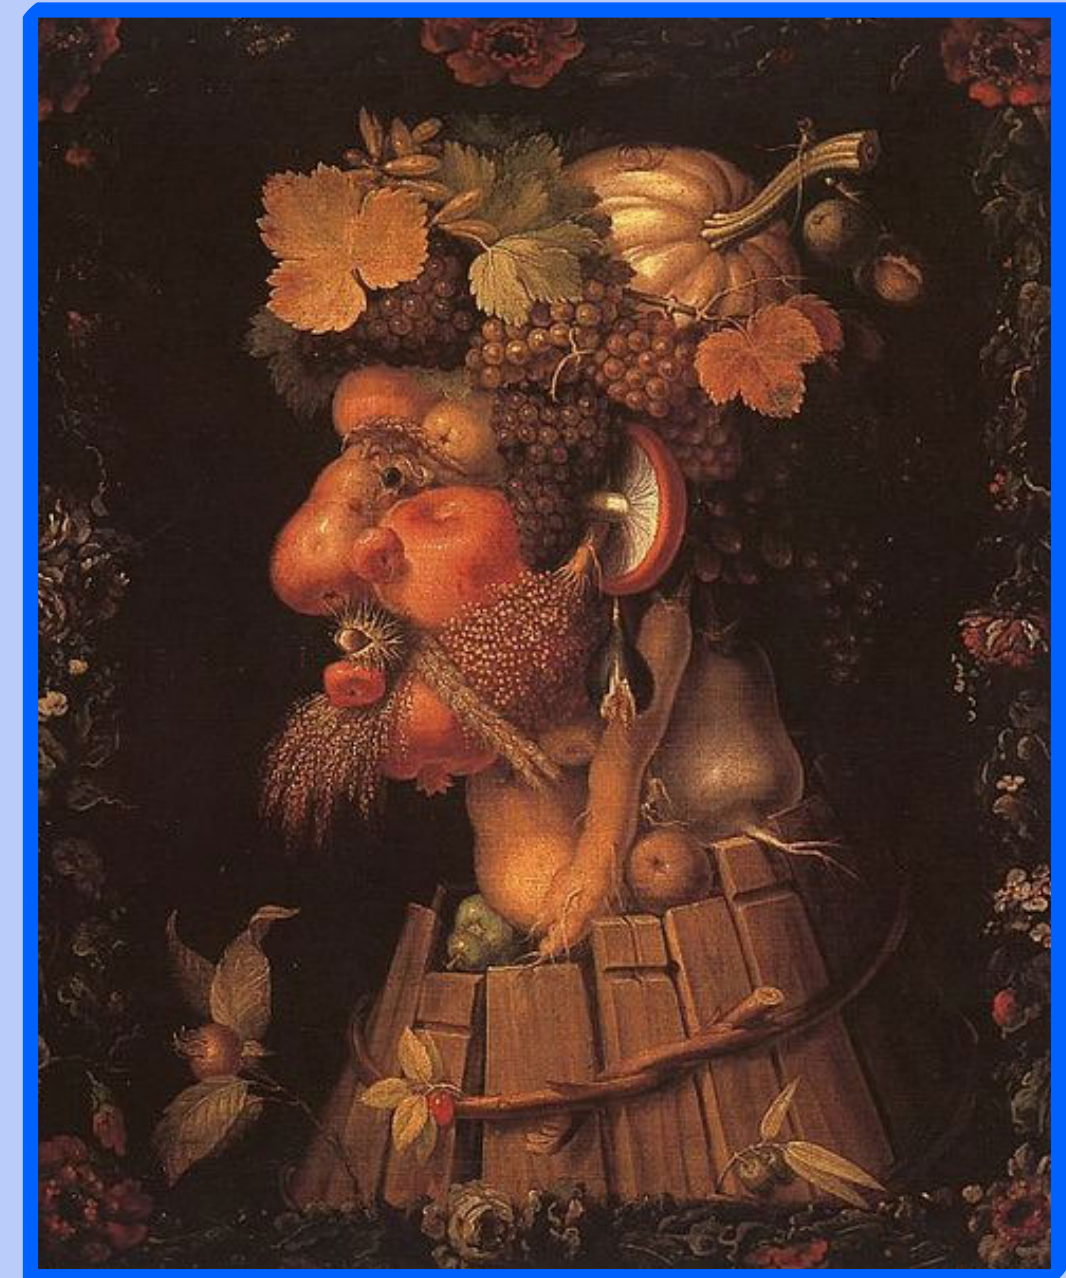

This portrait represents autumn.
The person has been made from fruits, vegetables, nuts and leaves.
The colours used for this portrait are much darker
than the spring and summer
portraits.

Did you
guess right?

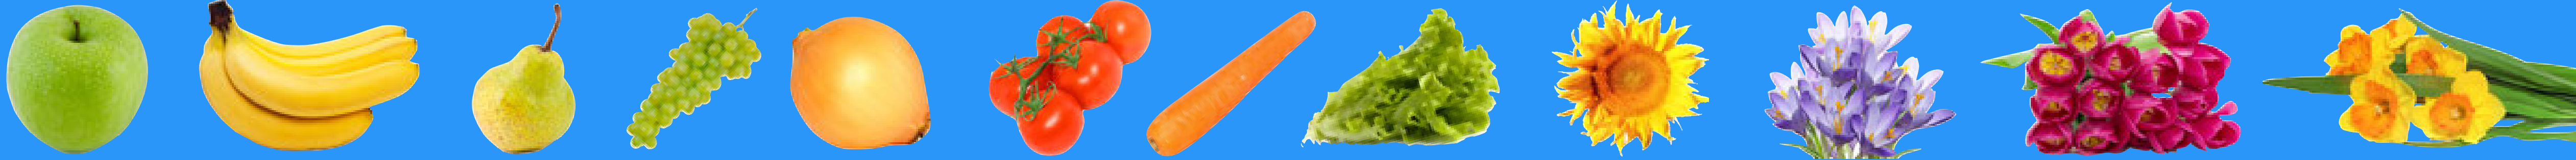

The four seasons are spring, summer, autumn and winter.

Which of these pictures do you think represents winter? Why?

Think, pair, share.

This portrait represents winter. The person has been made mainly from wood.

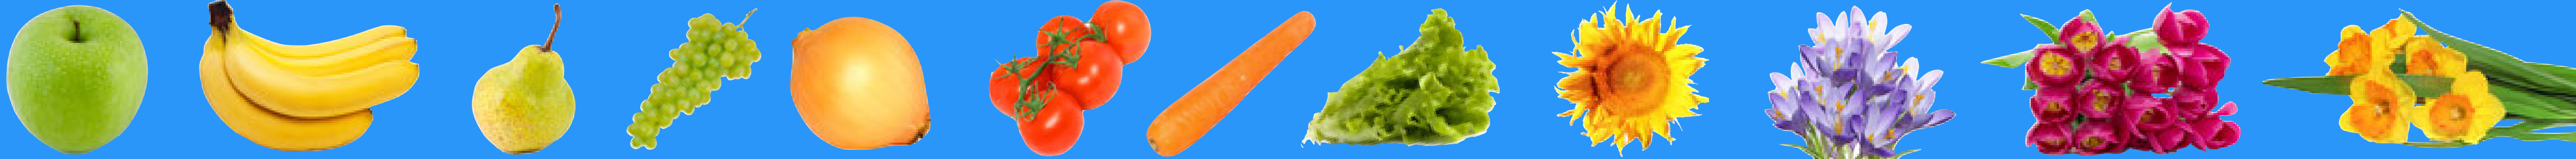

Did you guess right?

Plenary

Can you guess which events they represent?

Choose an event.
Which items would you use to represent it? Why?

Think, pair, share.

Easter

going to school

birthday

Christmas

fireworks night

