Message from the Headteacher

This weekend is Remembrance Sunday; people will be reflecting on the 100 years since the end of World War 1. Yr 6 children at Gorsefield created charcoal images inspired by extracts from: Anthems for Doomed Youth by Wilfred Owen and Rae Smith's charcoal artwork. In assembly on Friday the school had a minute of silence and remembered all those who have died in war.

The Year 6 children shared their pictures. Continually

Secrets of Success

We are teaching the children about how to be successful learners:

Try new things – If you never try, you'll never know.

Work hard – It's not luck that make you successful, it's all about the effort.

Concentrate – Learn to focus and be mindful.

Push yourself – Overcome your fears and your doubts.

Imagine – Have ideas, think outside the box and don't be scared of being wrong.

Improve – try to make your ideas and your work better.

Understand others – Listen to others and you will learn

Don't give up – have courage to continue even when it's hard.

Please talk about learning at home.
