Message from the Headteacher

This week it is timely for all families to think about the darker nights and need to dress for better visibility. Please ensure your children wear bright and fluorescent colours if out after dark so that they are visible to drivers and cyclists. Please ensure you talk to them about how to cross roads safely. Being visible is essential!

POETRY BY HEART

There will come soft rains

There will come soft rains and the smell of the ground,

And swallows circling with their shimmering sound;

And frogs in the pools singing at night,

And wild-plum trees in tremulous white;

Robins will wear their feathery fire,

Whistling their whims on a low fence-wire;

And not one will know of the war, not one

Will care at last when it is done.

Not one would mind, neither bird nor tree,

If mankind perished utterly;

And Spring herself, when she woke at dawn

Would scarcely know that we were gone. By Sara Teasdale
